

DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT RELATING TO THE CATEGORISATION OF CLIENTS

This disclosure document has been drawn up in accordance with Article 314-4 of the AMF General Regulations, effective from 1 November 2007, and has no contractual value between the Parties.

This disclosure document deals with:

1. The categorisation of clients by Calyon Financial SNC (Paris);
2. The possibility of clients changing category (options); and
3. The consequences of a change of category in terms of the level of protection offered to the client.

1 Categorisation of the Client by Calyon Financial SNC

Calyon Financial SNC will categorise the Client into one of the following three categories: Retail Client, Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty in accordance with the regulations in force.

Definitions

Client

Any person who, depending on the context, shall receive or has received a Service or shall carry out or has carried out a Transaction with Calyon Financial SNC. Calyon Financial SNC categorises each of these persons into the categories of Professional Client or Retail Client. Furthermore, Professional Clients may, under certain conditions, be classified as an Eligible Counterparty.

Retail Client

A Retail Client is a client that falls in neither the professional client category nor the eligible counterparty category.

Professional Client

Article L.533-16 of the French Monetary and Financial Code stipulates that "...A professional client is a client that possesses the necessary experience, knowledge and skill to make its own investment decisions and to correctly assess the risks involved...".

Article D.533-11 of the same Code lists the criteria clients must fulfil to be considered as professionals clients.

Eligible Counterparty

Article L.533-20 of the French Monetary and Financial Code stipulates that "Investment service providers authorised to receive and transmit orders on behalf of third parties, to execute orders on behalf of third parties...may instigate transactions between eligible counterparties or conclude transactions with these counterparties without complying with the obligations specified in Articles L.533-11 to L.533-16, L.533-18 and L.533-19 paragraph 1, relating to said transactions or any related service linked directly to these transactions."

Article D.533-13 of the Code lists the criteria clients must fulfil to be considered as Eligible Counterparties.

2 Possible options

In accordance with Articles 314-5 et seq. of the AMF General Regulations, Professional Clients and Eligible Counterparties may elect to become Retail Clients, Eligible Counterparties may elect to become Professional Clients and Professional Clients may elect to become Eligible Counterparties.

2.1 Recategorisation from Professional Client to Retail Client

A Professional Client may be reclassified, on its request or by Calyon Financial SNC (Paris), as a Retail Client.

2.2 Recategorisation from Eligible Counterparty to Professional Client or Retail Client

An Eligible Counterparty may be reclassified, on its request or by Calyon Financial SNC (Paris), as a Professional Client or Retail Client.

2.3 Recategorisation from Professional Client to Eligible Counterparty

A Professional Client may be reclassified as an Eligible Counterparty on request.

3 Consequences related to a change of category

The recategorisation of a Client results in the Client being subject to the regulatory protections applicable to such new category.

3.1 Recategorisation (higher level of protection)

In this case, in accordance with the applicable regulations the Client will benefit from a higher level of protection in the context of investment services offered by Calyon Financial SNC (Paris).

3.2 Recategorisation (lower level of protection)

Calyon Financial SNC draws the attention of Professional Clients to the consequences of recategorisation as an Eligible Counterparty.

IN THE CASE OF RECATEGORISATION TO A LOWER LEVEL OF PROTECTION, THE CLIENT WILL CEASE TO BENEFIT FROM THE PROTECTION AFFORDED TO ITS ORIGINAL CATEGORY, AS CALYON FINANCIAL SNC (PARIS) IS NOT REQUIRED IN PARTICULAR TO COMPLY WITH THE OBLIGATIONS SPECIFIED IN ARTICLES L.533-11 TO L.533-16, L.533-18 AND L.533-19, PARAGRAPH 1 OF THE FRENCH MONETARY AND FINANCIAL CODE.

Calyon Financial SNC recommends that the Client contact its usual advisor before making any requests to be recategorised to a lower level of protection.

4 Communication between the Parties relating to Client categorisation

Any request from the Client with a view to changing category, as well as any Client consents for such a change, must be signed by an/the Authorised Person(s) and forwarded to Calyon Financial SNC at the following address by mail:

Calyon Financial SNC
Département Marketing
119, rue Réaumur
75002 Paris

In the case of a request for change of category, Calyon Financial SNC may seek additional information from the Client.

APPENDIX 1

RULES APPLICABLE TO EACH CLIENT CATEGORY AND THE CONSEQUENCES LINKED TO RECATEGORYISATION

This appendix describes the main rules applicable to each Client category and the consequences of a recategorisation for the Services and Transactions offered by Calyon Financial SNC Paris.

As a result of a recategorisation, the Client will be subject to the regime applicable to its new category. Calyon Financial SNC's organisational rules apply when a Service is provided to an Eligible Counterparty. Furthermore, as with a Professional Client, an Eligible Counterparty may have access to certain Financial Instruments traded by Calyon Financial SNC Paris, depending on its experience and presumed knowledge of those Financial Instruments.

The rules on protection set forth below apply in accordance with the Client's situation. Each Client must therefore ensure it is familiar with the consequences before making a decision on whether to request a change in category. Calyon Financial SNC further recommends that the Client contact its usual advisor for further assistance.

This document is not exhaustive and aims to present the main levels of protection afforded to each Client category.

1 Information to be communicated by Calyon Financial SNC to the Client

The information provided by Calyon Financial SNC to the Client is tailored according to the Service, Transaction and situation in question. Subject to exceptions, this information will be forwarded by Calyon Financial SNC Paris prior to providing a Service or carrying out a Transaction.

1.1 Information on Calyon Financial SNC

Calyon Financial SNC Paris will communicate the following information to its Retail Clients:

- (a) information on the relevant contact details for effective communication with Calyon Financial SNC, including the languages and means of communication between the Parties;
- (b) information on Calyon Financial SNC's approvals, including the name and address of its supervisory or regulatory body;
- (c) information on the protection of Financial Instruments (including the compensation systems and sureties (garantie des dépôts)) in the event that Calyon Financial SNC holds Financial Instruments or funds for the Client;
- (d) information on the nature, frequency and dates of reports relating to the execution of services provided to the Client;
- (e) information on the management policy on conflicts of interest at Calyon Financial SNC and any additional information on this policy at the Client's request.

1.2 Information on the nature and characteristics of the Financial Instruments and the associated risks

1.2.1 Information for all Clients

The description of risks is tailored depending on the relevant Financial Instrument and the Client's category and level of knowledge, and includes the following information:

- (a) the risks associated with the Financial Instruments, namely information on the leveraging and the risk of loss in excess of the initial amount invested;
- (b) price volatility and/or low liquidity of the Financial Instrument;
- (c) financial commitments and other obligations, including debts, which may be assumed by a Client over and above the acquisition cost of the Financial Instrument;
- (d) Initial margin deposit, margin call or any similar obligations that may be required.

If the Financial Instrument benefits from a third-party guarantee, Calyon Financial SNC will provide the Client with information on the guarantor and guarantee.

In the event that a Financial Instrument is comprised of two or more instruments, Calyon Financial SNC will provide the Client with a description of the underlying instruments and how their interaction increases the risks.

If applicable, Calyon Financial SNC will inform the Client of the nature of the guarantees offered by a clearing house.

1.2.2 Information for Retail Clients only

In the case, for example, of Financial Instruments incorporating a guarantee provided by a third party, Calyon Financial SNC will provide information to a Retail Client on the guarantee, including sufficient details on the guarantor and guarantee so that the Client is in a position to assess the guarantee correctly.

1.3 Information on the holding by Calyon Financial SNC of Financial Instruments on behalf of Clients

1.3.1 Information for all Clients

Calyon Financial SNC will provide the following information:

- if a Client's Financial Instruments account is governed by a law other than that of a Member State of the European Economic Area, information regarding the application of the applicable law and the consequences with regard to the Client's rights concerning the Financial Instruments;

- if Calyon Financial SNC has an interest, lien or right to compensation relating to a Client's Financial Instrument, information on the existence and characteristics of said interest, lien or right to compensation, and where applicable information on the fact that a third party may hold an interest or a right to compensation relating to these Financial Instruments.

1.3.2 Information for Retail Clients only

- if it is possible for a third party to hold a Retail Client's Financial Instruments in the name of Calyon Financial SNC, information on this possibility and on Calyon Financial SNC's liability regarding any action, omission or insolvency of the third party holder and the consequences for the Client;
- if it is possible for a third party to hold a Retail Client's Financial Instruments in a master account, information on this possibility and a warning regarding the inherent risks;
- if the applicable law does not provide for the separate identification of the Retail Client's Financial Instruments held by a third party from said third party's own or Calyon Financial SNC's Financial Instruments, information regarding this point and a warning on the inherent risks;
- if Calyon Financial SNC proposes the temporary sale of securities using the Financial Instruments held in the Retail Client's name, or to use these Financial Instruments for its own purposes or on behalf of another Client, information on the obligations and liability relating to such use, the conditions for the return of said securities and the risks incurred.

1.4 Information on the costs and fees payable by Retail Clients

Calyon Financial SNC will communicate the following information to the Retail Client:

- (a) the total price of the Financial Instrument or Service in question (including the related fees, commissions, charges and expenses, as well as all taxes payable through Calyon Financial SNC), and if the total price cannot be stated, information on the basis for calculating the total price;
- (b) the currency, exchange rate and applicable foreign currency charges, if a proportion of the total price must be paid or is expressed in a foreign currency;
- (c) other costs;
- (d) the terms of payment and any other formalities.

1.5 Information on the inducements paid or received by Calyon Financial SNC

The Client will receive prior notification if Calyon Financial SNC has paid or received any remuneration, fee or inducement to or from a third party or through a third party payment. In particular, the Client will receive information on the nature and amount of this payment or inducement which is intended to improve the quality of service provided to the Client.

1.6 Presentation of information to Retail Clients

In order for information to be fair, clear and not misleading, certain information presented by Calyon Financial SNC to a Retail Client must meet the requirements provided for by the applicable regulations.

This applies, for example, when information provided by Calyon Financial SNC shows or refers to:

- (a) the benefits relating to a Service or a Financial Instrument;
- (b) a comparison of Services, Financial Instruments or persons providing Services;
- (c) past performances, simulations of past or future performances;
- (d) specific tax treatment.

Furthermore, Calyon Financial SNC will not use the name of a competent authority to convey that this authority approves of or supports its products or its Services.

2 Assessment by Calyon Financial SNC of the suitability of the Service or Financial Instrument

2.1 Relating to Professional Clients

Professional Client is presumed to have the necessary experience and knowledge to understand the risks inherent in the Financial Instruments, Transactions or Services in question. This presumption does not apply if the Client is a Retail Client that becomes an “elective” Professional Client.
